
8-11 oed yr old

What kind of pigs know karate? Pork chops!

What does it all mean?

a, 12

a Silage

b Traceability

c Lambing season

d Calf

e Ewe

f Ram

g Breed

h Beef

i Pasture

j Bull

k Food miles

l Dairy cow

m Fertile

n Climate

o Animal welfare

15 When a male and female animal produce young (babies)

14 An adult female sheep

6 The distance food must be transported to go from farm to your plate

5 The springtime months when sheep give birth to lambs

8 Meat from an adult cow

1 Farmers' fields that animals live and graze on

7 An adult male cow

12 Grass that has been cut and wrapped after the summer to preserve it, so animals have something fresh to eat over the winter months when plants don't grow

2 Cows raised for the purpose of producing milk and other products like cheese

4 When soil or land is healthy and can produce good grass, vegetation or crops

10 A baby cow

9 The type of weather an area has. Hill areas have a harsh environment but lowland areas have a more balanced environment.

11 When animals are cared for and looked after very well

3 When you can trace exactly where an animal has come from

13 A male sheep

PROTECTED GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATION

WELSH BEEF CIG EIDION CYMRU

WELSH LAMB CIG OEN CYMRU